CHANGE

- ❑ Challenge inequality and injustice
- ❑ Develop new ways of living, organising society and caring for people
- ❑ Support more just economic systems
- ❑ Create new democratic processes and institutions
- ❑ Champion environmental sustainability

ACTION

- ❑ Mobilise people to voice their story and stand up against injustice
- ❑ Support campaigns by activists and encourage solidarity
- ❑ Help to set up new community businesses and services that meet local need
- ❑ Enable people to run community activities and events

STRATEGY

- ❑ Map local assets and resources
- ❑ Analyse local issues and develop solutions with people affected by them
- ❑ Co-create neighbourhood and project plans with people
- ❑ Co-produce new services with people and service producers
- ❑ Develop local partnerships to make change happen
- ❑ Identify where power lies and how to challenge it to create change

LEADERSHIP

- ❑ Teach people how to organise
- ❑ Challenge people to step forward into leadership and support them
- ❑ Trust people to develop their own solutions
- ❑ Help people tell their story and voice their issues (instead of speaking for them)
- ❑ Encourage people to engage with democracy at all levels and hold decision makers (including yourselves) to account

REACH

- ❑ Understand who your community is and where they are
- ❑ Go out beyond your building
- ❑ Engage people who don't use your services or facilities
- ❑ Work on a whole locality basis and with all communities of interest

LISTENING

- ❑ Listen to users, members, volunteers, and staff to:
 - discover assets, talents, and passions
 - uncover concerns, aspirations, and needs
 - encourage people to listen to each other
- ❑ Go beyond consultation to understanding, engagement, and deep listening

CONNECT

- ❑ Bring people together around the things they care about
- ❑ Offer a neutral, safe space and processes to hold difficult conversations
- ❑ Hold events and gatherings for people to meet each other – face-to-face and online
- ❑ Enable people to use their skills and time for the community
- ❑ Foster a compassionate culture where people take care of each other

ORGANISE

- ❑ Be accountable by being responsible, responsive and engaged as an organisation to members and the wider community
- ❑ Develop a mass membership or network of people who can be mobilised
- ❑ Encourage people to self organise
- ❑ Create safe spaces for people to have meaningful and brave conversations about issues
- ❑ Convene networks and work in partnership with people, groups and activists
